Section 5. If at any time before a promotion becomes permanent (after 60 working days) and the Employer determines that the Employee lacks the qualifications for the promotion, the Employer shall have the right to return the Employee to the job from which he was promoted without loss of seniority.

ARTICLE X

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 1. The purpose of this procedure is to provide an orderly procedure for the prompt resolution of a claimed grievance at the lowest possible level.

Section 2. A grievance is defined as a dispute between the Employer and the Association or any Employee with regard to the interpretation, application or violation of any of the expressed terms and provisions of this Agreement.

Section 3. A grievance that may arise shall be processed and settled in the following manner:

Step One. An Employee who has a grievance shall notify the Employee's supervisor orally within five (5) working days after the occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance or after the time period for review provided for in Article XVIII, Section 9. The immediate supervisor shall investigate the grievance and shall give an oral answer within a period of five (5) working days. The failure of the immediate supervisor to give an oral answer within said five (5) working days shall be deemed a denial of the grievance and may be appealed to Step Two.

Step Two. If the grievance is not settled in Step One, the aggrieved Employee may present the grievance in writing to the Department Head within five (5) working days after the answer of the immediate supervisor was given; or, if no answer was given, within five (5) working days of when it was due, whichever occurs first. The grievance shall be signed by the Employee or the Association and shall state specifically the facts of the alleged violation, the provisions of the Agreement in dispute, and a statement from the Employee or the Association specifying what relief or remedy is desired. The Department Head shall investigate the grievance and issue a decision in writing within a period of five (5) working days. The failure of the Department Head to issue a decision within said five (5) working days shall be deemed a denial of the grievance and may be appealed to Step Three.

Step Three. If the grievance is not settled in Step Two, the aggrieved Employee or the Association may present the grievance in writing to the Board of Supervisors within five (5) working days after the decision of the Department Head was given; or, if no decision was given, within five (5) working days of when it was due, whichever occurs first. This written grievance shall contain the same information as was submitted to the Department Head. The Board of Supervisors shall investigate the grievance and shall convene a meeting of all interested parties within a period of five (5) working days. The Board of Supervisors shall issue a decision within five (5) working days of the meeting.

Step Four. If the grievance is not settled in Step Three, the aggrieved Employee or the Association may appeal to arbitration. The Employee shall request arbitration by written notice submitted to the Board of Supervisors within five (5) working days from the date that the Board of Supervisor's decision was given; or, if no decision was given, within five (5) working days of when it was due, whichever occurs first. The written notice shall contain the same information as required in Step Three. When a timely request has been made for arbitration, a representative of the Employer and the Employee or the Association shall select a mutually agreeable arbitrator to hear and determine the grievance. If the representatives of the parties are unable to agree upon the selection of an arbitrator within five (5) calendar days of the Employer's receipt of the arbitration notice, the parties shall jointly request the Public Employment Relations Board or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to submit a list of five (5) grievance arbitrators. Upon receipt of the list, the parties' designated representatives shall determine by lot the order of elimination and thereafter each shall, in that order, alternately strike a name from the list and fifth and remaining person shall act as the arbitrator.

Step Five. The arbitrator selected shall schedule a hearing on the grievance and, after hearing such evidence as the parties desire to present, shall render a written opinion and award within thirty (30) calendar days, unless an additional extension of time is granted by the parties. The arbitrator shall have no authority to hear or determine wage or fringe benefit adjustments, nor add to, subtract from, modify or amend any terms of this agreement.

The arbitrator shall have no authority to substitute the arbitrator's discretion for that of the Employer in any matter reserved to the Employer by law or the terms of this agreement. The decision of the arbitrator within the scope of the arbitrator's authority shall be final and binding upon all parties in cases of grievances involving discipline or discharge of employees. A decision of the arbitrator within the scope of the arbitrator's authority in cases not involving discipline or discharge of an employee will only be advisory and shall not be binding upon the Employer. Any decision by the arbitrator may not be retroactively applied beyond the date of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance.

Section 4. The Employer and the Association shall share equally any joint costs of the arbitration procedure, such as the fees and expenses of the arbitrator, the court reporter, if one is desired by the arbitrator, and the cost of a hearing room and transcript. The party incurring them will pay any other expenses.

Section 5. Whenever an individual Employee has a grievance as set out above, the Employee is entitled to be represented by the Association if the Employee so chooses. The Association may also process a grievance on its own in accordance with the above procedures.

Section 6. The failure of an Employee, or the Association, to appeal a grievance to the next step within the applicable terms specified above, shall bar an Employee or the Association from appealing the grievance further, and any such grievance shall be considered as abandoned and finally settled.

Section 7. The failure by the Employer to reply within the applicable times as specified above, shall be deemed a denial of the grievance which may then be appealed by the Employee or the Association to the next step.

ARTICLE XI

LEAVE OF ABSENCE WITH PAY

Section 1. Court appearances. All probationary and regular full and part-time Employees shall be granted time off with pay for appearance before a court, legislative committee or other judicial or quasi-judicial body as a witness in an action involving the federal government, the State of Iowa, Jackson County or a political subdivision thereof in response to a subpoena, or when such appearance is ordered by the Department Head in connection with the Employee's work. If the injury leave continues beyond the third day, no additional sick leave can be used, and the total compensation will be the amount paid by workers' compensation insurance. A full day of sick leave will be charged for each of the first three (3) working days away following injury. Sick leave will not be charged thereafter while the Employee remains on workers' compensation.

Section 4. Jury duty. All probationary and regular full and part-time Employees shall be granted time off with pay for serving on any federal, state, county or municipal jury. Such attendance shall include the time going to court and returning home. Any pay received by an Employee for jury service shall be forwarded to the Employer within 30-days of receipt of the payment. Any mileage or meal reimbursement received by the Employee may be retained.

Section 5. Maternity leave. An Employee shall be entitled to all benefits required by the Family Leave Act.

Section 6. Snow days. An Employee shall be paid their regular days wages when bad road conditions such as snow, ice, or flooding cause the courthouse to be closed by an order of the Supervisors. When this occurs, the Employee shall not be required to use vacation or personal holiday time.

Section 7. Military leave. It is the policy of the Employer that full-time Employees be entitled to a military leave for a period as allowed by Section 29A.28 of the Code of Iowa without loss of status or efficiency rating. If the Employee desires pay and position rights when discharged from military service, a request should be filed prior to induction or reporting for service.

Section 8. Sick leave.

- (a) Accumulation of sick leave benefit: All probationary and full-time Employees shall accrue sick leave at the rate of two days per month for each full month in which no sick leave was used. Sick leave credits may be accumulated to a maximum of 90 days. In addition to a two day credit for use of no sick leave, an employee will accrue one day of sick leave credit for each month in which the employee uses less than 3 hours of sick leave. If an employee uses more than 3 hours of sick leave in a month, they will receive no sick leave credit for that month.

Regular part-time Employees will accrue sick leave at the rate of one day per month for each full month of service. Sick leave credits may be accumulated to a maximum of 90 days. In addition to the one day credit for use of no sick leave, a regular part-time employee will accrue one-half day of sick leave credit if the employee uses less than 3 hours of sick leave pay. If a regular part-time employee uses more than 3 hours of sick leave in a month, they will receive no sick leave credit for that month.

- (b) Sick leave donations: The Employer will allow an employee to donate up to five sick days per year, subject to the cap of 90 days per year, to another employee who has used up all their sick days. An employee may receive up to a maximum of 60 days of donated sick leave in a five year period.
- (c) Use of sick leave: Sick leave shall apply to a period in which the Employee is incapacitated from the performance of assigned duties by sickness or injury or whereby reason of exposure to contagious disease at the post of duty would jeopardize the health of others.

The Employee shall inform his Department Head that he will be absent for reasons of illness and its expected duration. To be eligible for sick leave payment, an Employee shall notify his Department Head as soon as possible, but in any event, prior to the starting time of the work day.

This notice may be waived if the Department Head determines that the Employee could not reasonably be expected to comply with this requirement because of circumstances beyond the control of the Employee.

Sick leave will not be paid in advance but must be earned prior to the date of illness. Payment of accrued sick leave benefits will begin on the first day of absence.

Use of sick leave is a privilege, which may be granted or denied by the Department Head subject to the grievance procedures. Unless the privilege is abused, sick leave will be granted in cases of:

- (1) Illness or injury of the Employee causing absence from work.
- (2) Acute need on the part of the Employee for medical or dental care.
- (3) Medical or dental care for the Employee which cannot be deferred until or obtained after working hours. (Sick leave cannot be used on a day when the Employee actually works seven hours or more.)

Sick leave is not intended to provide for practical nursing care of a member of the immediate family but may be granted to permit the Employee to make the necessary arrangements for the proper care of members of the immediate family. For this purpose, up to 35-40 hours per year of the employee's accumulated sick time, based on the employee's normal work week, will be allowed to be used and will be known as Family Sick Leave.

An Employee who is on sick leave that extends through a holiday period shall not be charged for a day or days of sick leave for the holiday.

For absences of five (5) or more continuous days of sick leave, a physician's certification as to the need for the sick leave shall be required.

- (d.) Annual sick leave credit: Full-time Employees who do not utilize sick leave during a three-month span shall be entitled to one-half day additional sick leave credit.

The earned half-day credit will be credited at the end of each quarter. The three-month span schedule and credit month is as follows:

THREE MONTH SPAN	CREDIT MONTH
1. January 1 through March 31	April 1
2. April 1 through June 30	July 1
3. July 1 through September 30	October 1
4. October 1 through December 31	January 1

Unused credit will be paid the last payroll before Christmas. If an employee plans to use sick leave credit in December, notice must be given to payroll before December 1.

Section 9. Additional days off with pay. Employees wishing or needing to take more paid days than those allowed by this section shall do so only if they have unused compensatory, vacation, or floating time which would cover such additional days. Additional time off, beyond these specified times, shall be without pay.

ARTICLE XII

LEAVE OF ABSENCE WITHOUT PAY

Leaves of absence may be extended for like periods, providing the Employee requests additional time in writing and receives written permission from his Department Head.

Section 5. A leave of absence shall not be used for purposes of participating in a new employment relationship.

Section 6. The Employer is supportive of the concept of educational leave so Employees may further their education, improve their skills and better perform their jobs. Employees are encouraged to take advantage of such opportunities.

Any Employee seeking educational leave must make that request in writing. The request should explain the reason for the leave, the duration of the educational program in which the Employee intends to participate and the date he expects to return to employment. The letter will be included as part of the Employee's personnel file.

The length of time an Employee may be absent on educational leave is the discretion of the Department Head. Final approval for the leave must be granted by the Board of Supervisors.

During educational leave, an Employee does not earn vacation or sick leave benefits, collect sick leave benefits or contribute to retirement programs.

If Employees on educational leave wish to continue their group health insurance policies, they must reimburse the county for all group health care premiums. Checks, payable to the insurance companies for the full amount of the premiums due, should be submitted to the payroll clerk by the 20th of each month. If payment is not received by that date, the Employee will no longer be considered part of the group, and his insurance policy will be discontinued.
